

Allen County Jail Chaplaincy (ACJC)
417 S. Calhoun
Fort Wayne, IN 46802

Director: Dick Sievers
W) 449-7215
C) 417-6500
Email: dickacjc@aol.com

Fort Wayne is home to the largest jail in Indiana. Blackhawk Ministries has financially supported the Allen County Jail Chaplaincy (ACJC) since 2000. This ministry promotes unity among churches and religions by providing a Christian witness to those who are incarcerated at the Allen County Jail. Classes are provided with information about the causes and effects of substance abuse. The Mission of the ACJC is:

Be a spiritual support to those who are incarcerated
Be of help to pastors and churches who offer spiritual support to their members in jail
Be a living witness of Jesus Christ to the inmates, their families, the churches and community.

2010 Statistics Provided by the ACJC:

236 baptisms in jail
17,000 incarcerated in Allen County
10,000 people attended church services
755 went through the substance abuse classes
237 graduated from the substance abuse classes
70 volunteers assisted with programs

How Can You Be a Blessing?

Volunteer to Assist With:

- Prayer for inmates, officers and volunteers
- Help in group sessions; men and women meet 3X/week. No training required.
- Chapel services; 8 services/week; assist or lead services. *Great home community service opportunity.
- Book carts
- Bible studies

Donations Needed:

Paperback books of all kinds (please no hard covers)
White underwear for men (jockey or boxers) and women
Crew neck t-shirts
White socks for men and women
Bras of all sizes

Hebrews 13:3a (NIV)

Continue to remember those in prison as if you were together with them in prison.